

Exhibit E

Harassment & cyberbullying policies

Harassment and Cyberbullying Policy: YouTube Community Guidelines

The safety of our creators, viewers, and partners is our highest priority. We look to each of you to help us protect this unique and vibrant community. It's important you understand our Community Guidelines, and the role they play in our shared responsibility to keep YouTube safe. Take the time to carefully read the policy below. You can also check out this page for a full list of our guidelines.

Content that threatens individuals is not allowed on YouTube. We also don't allow content that targets an individual with prolonged or malicious insults based on intrinsic attributes. These attributes include their protected group status or physical traits.

If you find content that violates this policy, report it. Instructions for reporting violations of our Community Guidelines are available here. If you've found multiple videos or comments that you would like to report, you can report the channel. For tips about how to stay safe, keep your account secure, and protect your privacy, check out the Creator Safety Center and Stay safe on YouTube.

If specific threats are made against you and you feel unsafe, report it directly to your local law enforcement agency.

What this policy means for you

If you're posting content

Don't post content on YouTube if it fits any of the descriptions noted below.

- Content that features prolonged name calling or malicious insults (such as racial slurs) based on someone's intrinsic attributes. These attributes include their protected group status, physical attributes, or their status as a survivor of sexual assault, non-consensual intimate imagery distribution, domestic abuse, child abuse and more.
- Content uploaded with the intent to shame, deceive or insult a minor. A minor is defined as an individual under the legal age of majority. This usually means anyone younger than 18 years old, but the age of a minor might vary by geography.

Other types of content that violate this policy

This policy applies to videos, video descriptions, comments, live streams, and any other YouTube product or feature. Keep in mind that this isn't a complete list. Please note these policies also apply to

What happens if content violates this policy

More Examples

- Accounts dedicated entirely to focusing on maliciously insulting an identifiable individual, act without their consent.
 - Depicting an identifiable individual being murdered, seriously injured, or engaged in a graphic sexual animal.
 - "Look at this dog of a woman! She's not even a human being — she must be some sort of mutant or Using an extreme insult to dehumanize an individual based on their intrinsic attributes. For example: harmful conspiracy theory where the conspiracy is linked to direct threats or violent acts.
 - Targeting an individual and making claims they are involved in human trafficking in the context of a this filthy [slur targeting a protected group]. I wish they'd just get hit by a truck."
 - Targeting an individual based on their membership in a protected group, such as by saying: "Look at video."
 - Repeatedly showing pictures of someone and then making statements like "Look at this creature's teeth, they're so disgusting!", with similar commentary targeting intrinsic attributes throughout the
- Here are some examples of content that's not allowed on YouTube:

Examples

- Creates content that harms the YouTube community by persistently inciting hostility between creators for personal financial gain.
 - Exposes an individual to risks of physical harm based on the local social or political context across several uploads.
 - Repeatedly targets, insults and abuses an identifiable individual based on their intrinsic attributes.
 - Repeatedly encourages abusive audience behavior.
- In some rare cases, we may remove content or issue other penalties when a creator:

Monetization and other penalties

- Note: We take a harder line on content that maliciously insults someone based on their protected group status, regardless of whether or not they are a high-profile person.
- Harassment education or awareness: Content that features actual or simulated harassment for someone and claim "I was joking."
 - Scripted performances: Insults made in the context of an artistic medium such as scripted satire, stand up comedy, or music (such as a diss track). Note: This exception is not a pass to harass officials or CEOs of major multinational corporations.
 - Debates related to high-profile officials or leaders: Content featuring debates or discussions of topical issues concerning individuals who have positions of power, like high-profile government
- If the primary purpose is educational, documentary, scientific, or artistic in nature, we may allow content that includes harassment. These exceptions are not a pass to harass someone. Some examples include:

Exceptions

- External links: This can include clickable URLs, verbally directing users to other sites in video, as well as other forms.

EXHIBIT D

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=280222687h1&enrel_topic=6232436

3/3

Post to the help community
Get answers from community members

Need more help?
Try these next steps:

if your content violates this policy, we'll remove the content and send you an email to let you know. If we can't verify that a link you post is safe, we may remove the link.

If this is your first time violating our Community Guidelines, you'll likely get a warning with no penalty to your channel. If it's not, we may issue a strike against your channel. If you get 3 strikes within 90 days, your channel will be terminated. You can learn more about our strikes system here.

We may terminate your channel or account for repeated violations of the Community Guidelines or Terms of Service. We may also terminate your channel or account after a single case of severe abuse, or when the channel is dedicated to a policy violation. You can learn more about channel or account terminations here.

Harassment & cyberbullying policies - YouTube Help

#450

7/28/23, 4:07 PM